El Capulin: This 100 year old Church is seeking help in completing it's parsonage. Located on rolling ranch land approximately 80 miles from downtown Mexico City.

El Capulin: About 80 miles north of Mexico City in the State of Hidalgo, this old church has stood in the open ranch lands for over 100 years.

The area is reminiscent of the old west in the USA with sheep, cattle, horses, cowboy boots and open rolling hills divided neatly with stone fences. The church with its stone front, is easily visible in the local landscape.

New construction is underway for a parsonage and classrooms. Teams from Colorado, Tupelo, MS and Madison, MS have visited recently to help with construction. Other construction teams are welcomed.

Team lodging is in the church facilities and in church members homes. The church is removed from city life with only a small village located 15 miles away.

The Pastor is a lay speaker who works in Mexico City and commutes and serves without pay.
