An Abundance of God's Love

Linda found herself radically transformed by her experience on a Volunteers In Mission team to Cuba.

"My life changed in ways I had not expected when I was blessed with an opportunity to participate in an UMVIM mission trip," she says. "Looking back, I realize that the day I signed up, a day just like any other, was a pivotal point in my life."

Linda soon realized that her mission was not about the paint, or working with a congregation to improve the cosmetics of a sanctuary. Her team's mission was about building relationships: the giving and receiving of God's love from one person to another.

UMVIM, SEJ sends over 30,000 mission volunteers every year. Each and every one of those persons carries back with them a story. The mission is not just about the trip, or the hard work — it's about living the story of the Gospel with people all over the world. With over 400 projects worldwide, we want to help you live that story. See the possibilities at www.umvim.org.
